

Maryland Construction & Materials Conference

June 21-23, 2017

Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay
Cambridge, MD

Theme:

"The Next Generation"

The Conference Mission:

Connecting people and enabling them to share their knowledge and experiences in an atmosphere full of good energy.

"I attend this conference to network with top managers and owners from MRMCA and MTBMA member companies while enjoying the service and accommodations at the Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay."

What to look for at this year's conference:

Wednesday activities include: Afternoon Board Meetings and a Reception & Buffet Dinner on the Rivers Edge starting at 7:00 pm.

Thursday speakers and topics include: Pete K. Rahn, Secretary of Transportation, "Building a Better Life – Concrete Steps to Success", Joel Oppenheimer, STV, Inc., "What You Should Know About OSHA's Crystalline Silica Standard", Dale Drysdale, NSSGA, "When Your Granddaughter Becomes the Plant Manager" – Doug Ruhlin, RMA, Golf Outing, Reception & Dinner starting at 6:15 pm.

Friday speakers and topics include: "Markets, He Wrote: Looking for Clues into the Economy's Direction", Anirban Basu, Sage Policy Group, "How to Attract Millennials to Your Company – and Keep Them", Caitlin Crommett, Concurrent Sessions which include topics regarding safety technology and certification, building codes, environmental compliance and embracing sustainability plus Safety Committee meeting.

Online registration, agenda, room reservations can be found by clicking the linked buttons below.

Registration

Agenda

Hotel Reservations

Registration questions? Call (301) 694-4899 or email Mindy@MarylandConcrete.com

Hotel reservation questions? Call (410) 760-9505 or email Shelly@mtbma.org