

Building Materials for Residential Framing

Sponsored by MBIA's Green Building Council

This half-day event will highlight three building materials (engineered wood, steel and concrete) used for residential framing in single-family and multifamily structures.

Speakers from the APA-The Engineered Wood Association, the Steel Framing Industry Association (SFIA) and the National Ready Mixed Concrete Association (NRMCA) will discuss the attributes of three materials for building energy-efficient and economical "Green" housing.

Up to 3 AIA LU/HSW Available

Tuesday, June 13 8:30am-Noon 8:00am-8:30am (registration) Maryland Building Industry Association 11825 W. Market Place, Fulton, MD 20759		$10 per Green Council member $20 per MBIA member $30 per non-member (continental breakfast included)
--	--	--

Sponsorships available. Breakfast Sponsor $100 (includes two tickets). Sign up at www.marylandbuilders.org or email arosenblum@marylandbuilders.org for more information.

Thanks to our Presenters

Make checks payable to MBIA and mail to MBIA, 11825 W. Market Place, Fulton, MD 20759 OR register online at www.marylandbuilders.org. For questions email arosenblum@marylandbuilders.org or call 301-776-6211.

Contact Name _____

Company Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ cell phone _____ email _____

(Circle One: Visa Master Card AMEX Check)

$Total _____

Name on Card _____

Card Number _____ exp. _____

MBIA
11825 W. Market Place
Fulton, MD 20759
301-776-MBIA
marylandbuilders.org